

Update on Resumption of Academic Activities

Communication from the Executive Committee of Senate

March 10, 2015

Pursuant to the Senate Policy on Academic Implications of Disruptions or Cessations of University Business Due to Labour Disputes or Other Causes, the Senate Executive Committee met on Tuesday, March 10, 2015 in its role in overseeing the process of directing and implementing necessary remedial action. The Committee received plans presented by the Vice President Academic and Provost and individual Deans with respect to proposed remedial activity during a long disruption.

The Committee agreed that the following be added to the list of those courses currently exempt from suspension and consequently classes will resume on Wednesday March 11, 2015 for:

- a) All courses offered by the Lassonde School of Engineering, the Schulich School of Business, the School of Nursing, the School of Administrative Studies and the School of Human Resources Management

The Committee also agreed to meet on Thursday March 12, 2015 to review Faculty-specific remediation frameworks that would inform the Committee about resuming the balance of courses on Monday, March 16, 2015.
