

Osgoode Hall Courses Will Resume Monday, March 16, 2015
Other Resumption Decisions to Follow

Communication from the Executive Committee of Senate

March 12, 2015

The Executive Committee of Senate met on Thursday, March 12, 2015 to receive detailed information with respect to Faculty-specific remediation frameworks that would inform its consideration of options for resumption of classes.

The Committee agreed that the following be added to the list of those courses currently exempt from suspension and consequently classes will resume on Monday, March 16, 2015 for:

- a) All courses in the JD programs offered by the Osgoode Hall Law School, on the understanding that CUPE 3903 work will not be replaced.

After receiving other remediation frameworks, the Committee was able to identify a number of outstanding issues requiring resolution in order for classes to resume. A revised institutional framework for resumption of classes on Tuesday, March 17, 2015 will be brought back to the Committee at a meeting on Monday, March 16 so that it can conclude its deliberations. The Committee commits to announcing its decisions immediately following the meeting on Monday.

The Executive Committee of Senate would like to thank members of the community for their patience.

ROXANNE MYKITIUK, Chair of Senate, March 12, 2015
