

Academic Disruption Has Ended
All Academic Activities Resume Wednesday, April 1, 2015

Communication from the Executive Committee of Senate

March 31, 2015

Members of CUPE 3903 unit 1 and unit 3 have voted to ratify an agreement with the University and end their strike. As a result, the Executive Committee of Senate declares that the disruption of academic activities that began on March 3, 2015 has ended.

Academic activities resume in full on Wednesday, April 1, 2015.

This declaration has been issued by the Executive Committee of Senate in accordance with its responsibilities under Senate's Policy on the Academic Implications of Disruptions or Cessations of University Business Due to Labour Disputes or Other Causes. The Executive Committee issued a number of communications before and during disruption, all of which can be retrieved from the Senate Website:

<http://secretariat.info.yorku.ca/senate/>

Of particular importance is the framework document "Completion of Courses / Guidelines for Remediation and Accommodation" issued on March 26 and subsequently revised.

Please bear in mind that the principles of the Disruptions policy -- academic integrity, fairness to students and timely information – together with specific guidance in the "Completion of Courses" document will continue to apply until classes and examinations for the Y and W terms have ended.

ROXANNE MYKITIUK, CHAIR OF SENATE
March 31, 2015

Frequently Asked Questions can be found via this tab on the University's home page

Please refer to the Registrar's Office Website for updated information on class and examination schedules.