

Disruption Resulting from CUPE 3903 Strike Has Ended

Communication from the Executive Committee of Senate

July 26, 2018

By passing the Back to Class Act (York University), the Ontario legislature has ended the strike by units 1 and 3 of CUPE 3903. The Executive Committee of Senate declares that the disruption of academic activities that began on March 5, 2018 has ended.

Courses and related academic activities that were suspended at the outset of the strike are scheduled during a formal remediation period for Y 2017-2018 and W 2018 courses. Dates for the remediation period are set out below.

This declaration has been issued by the Executive Committee of Senate in accordance with its responsibilities under Senate's Policy on the Academic Implications of Disruptions or Cessations of University Business Due to Labour Disputes or Other Causes. The Executive Committee issued communications before and during the disruption, all of which can be retrieved from the Senate Website at:

Particularly important is the remediation framework document "Completion of Courses and Finalization of Grades," first issued on March 19 and subsequently revised, setting out options for students and faculty members.

The Committee continues to call for respect for the principles of the Disruptions policy -- academic integrity, fairness to students and timely information – and the options in the "Completion of Courses" document.
